

EXHIBITION APPLICANT INFORMATION

Craving Coffee exhibitions have been running since February 2015, where we offer local and upcoming visual artists our space to exhibit their works for a month.

If you would like to apply please read the information below and then fill in the online application form.

Who are we looking for?

We welcome London based visual artists who:

- Work in visual mediums such as painting, photography, graphic design or illustration which complements our space.
- Actively promote what they do and have the ability to pull a crowd.
- Are very professional and great people to work with our team.

In return we:

- Offer a free exhibition space for a month, with professional artist clip rails on our walls for you to hang your works.
- Send people your way for sales without taking any commission.
- Organise an opening launch night as part of our Tottenham Social events with a street food trader and pay bar.
- Promote through our network including our social media, website, mailing list, PR contacts.

How does it work?

Fill in our online application form with examples of your work. If we feel your work is suitable for our space, our Events Manager will be in touch for an interview to discuss your exhibition further.

Exhibitions run from the first Friday of the month until the last Sunday of the month. The opening launch night takes place on the first Friday evening, 5-11pm.

We look forward to hearing from you!
